LATIN JAZZ NIGHT!
Grupo Manteca

led by Hiram Perez, saxophone
with Moisés Paiewonsky, trombone

Sunday, March 8, 7:30 p.m.
Crowder Hall
37th Annual AzJazz Presents:

Latin Jazz Night!

Sunday, March 8, 2015
Crowder Hall
7:30 p.m.

Grupo Manteca

Led by Hiram Perez, saxophone

Featuring Moisés Paiewonsky, trombone

Hiram Perez, band leader/saxophones/vocals
Carlos Lugo, lead vocal/trumpet
Michael Carbajal, trumpet/vocals
Jason Carder, trumpet
Carlos Chavez, trumpet
Moisés Paiewonsky, trombone
Dylan Carpenter, trombone
Aaron Szabo, timbales
Danny Brito, congas
Eric Hines, auxiliary percussion
Pete Cadava, bongo
Richard Katz, piano
Steve Smith, guitar
Sean Mendoza, bass

Program to be announced from the stage

Grupo Manteca, led by saxophonist and vocalist Hiram Perez, sets the standard for excellence in authentic salsa dance music. The group specializes in Puerto Rican, Cuban, New York and Colombian salsa and fuses them together to create the band’s unique sound. Add to the mix cha cha, Latin jazz and timba and you’ve got a group with amazing versatility. The band is made up of carefully chosen musicians who make up the perfect sonority. Their energy on stage, rich sound and musical precision leaves audiences mesmerized.